Table of Contents

Editors ................................................................. v
Introduction ......................................................... vi

1 Rhetorical Foundations ........................................ 1
   An Introduction to Rhetoric, Brenta Blevins .................. 3
   Writing with the Rhetorical Appeals: Opportunities to Persuade in Context, Amy Berrier ......................... 18
   Reading for the Rhetorical Appeals, Lauren Shook ........... 27
   The Canons of Rhetoric as Phases of Composition,
      Will Dodson and Chelsea Skelley ......................... 36
   Academic Integrity: Promoting Intellectual Growth,
      Elysia Balavage ............................................. 43
   Reflecting Back: Compiling the Portfolio and Writing the Critical Reflection Essay, Emily Hall .................. 48

2 Rhetorical Approaches ......................................... 55
   Strategies for Active Reading, Meghan H. McGuire .......... 57
   Invention, Asking Questions to Find a Starting Point,
      Kathleen T. Leuschen ......................................... 69
   Pre-Writing Strategies: Methods to Achieve a Successful
      Argument, Kristine Lee ...................................... 73
   Thesis Statements: Keeping the Beat in Written, Visual, and Spoken Arguments, Emily Dolive ......................... 79
   Arrangement as Rhetorical Composing, Chelsea Skelley ...... 86
   Using Academic Discourse and Style to Strengthen your Writing, Amy Berrier ......................................... 91
   Understanding Tone and Voice, Lilly Berbery. ............... 100
Rhetorical Research

- It’s All—Well, a Lot—in the Delivery, Brenta Blevins
  - Page: 106
- Re-Seeing Revision: A Process of Experimentation, Carl Schlachte
  - Page: 113

Finding a Conversation to Find Research
- Courtney Adams Wooten
  - Page: 123

Conducting Academic Research
- Jenny Dale
  - Page: 128

Incorporating Evidence from Source Material to Make an Effective Argument
- Erik Cofer
  - Page: 138

From Beginning to End…and Everything in Between
- Bryan McMillan
  - Page: 147

Situating Evidence through Contextualization
- Alison M. Johnson
  - Page: 154

Organizing Research by Synthesizing Sources
- Amanda Bryan
  - Page: 160

Rhetorical Elements of Academic Citation
- Ben Compton
  - Page: 165

Rhetorical Situations

- Understanding Course Materials as Part of the Classroom Conversation, Alicia Beeson
  - Page: 179

Writing a Rhetorical Analysis
- Lauren Shook
  - Page: 188

Keep Calm and Review On: De-Stressing the Peer Review Process
- Marc Keith
  - Page: 197

Writing about Your Composing Process
- Jessica D. Ward
  - Page: 205

Cultivating Your Ethos: Class Participation, Written Communication, and Student-Instructor Conferences
- Kayla Forrest
  - Page: 211

Genres Other than Essay Writing in Academic Discourse
- Alison M. Johnson
  - Page: 216

More than Words: Analyzing Visual Rhetoric
- Amanda Bryan
  - Page: 225

The Multiliteracy Centers: Empowering Writers, Speakers, and Designers to Communicate Effectively
- Stacy W. Rice
  - Page: 237

Appendix
- Page: 243

Index
- Page: 276