

UNC GREENSBORO

Department of English

Here are the steps that you should follow when you first begin to encounter difficulties. Please don't wait until the situation has become critical—ignoring a problem will not make it go away.

1. Contact your instructor to make them aware of the situation. Many times, your instructor can assist you with the problems you might be facing.
2. If your instructor is unable to assist you or if you are uncomfortable speaking with your instructor about the problem, please reach out to Dr. Karen Weyler (kaweyler@uncg.edu), Director of Undergraduate Studies, or Dr. Scott Romine (sbromine@uncg.edu), Head of the English Department. In most cases, either of these two will be able to help you resolve your problem or assist you in contacting the correct person or campus unit who will be able to help you. You can also email Paul Cloninger (pcclonin@uncg.edu), Dr. Romine's Executive Assistant, for help in directing your question to the correct person.

Welcome Back!
As we begin this Spring semester, we understand that there are many challenges as we continue to navigate this pandemic. While the conditions and procedures the University adopts can make us feel isolated and alone, we here in the English Department will assist you in any way we can. If, as the semester develops, you find yourself challenged or struggling in your English classes please reach out to us and allow us to help you. Your success is important to us.

English Department
Student Support Services

Planning to take classes in Summer 2022?

Continuing students who want to register for Summer 2022 classes will need to use the same Advising Code as they used for Spring 2022. Summer Registration will open Feb 1 for all continuing students without the typical staggered Registration Windows based on earned hours.

● For assistance with writing assignments: The University Writing Center (<https://writingcenter.uncg.edu/>)

● For assistance with public speaking assignments or oral presentations: The University Speaking Center (<https://speakingcenter.uncg.edu/>)

● The Digital Acts Studio (<http://digitalactstudio.uncg.edu/>)

● The Digital Media Commons (<http://library.uncg.edu/spaces/dmc/>)

● To register for accommodations in the classroom and for testing: Office of Accessibility Resources and Services (<http://ods.uncg.edu/>)

For Food Insecurity: Spartan Open Pantry <https://wesleyluther.org/sop>

For students in distress: The Dean of Students Office (<http://sa.uncg.edu/dean/>) can help in a multitude of ways

Department of English
3143 MHRA Building
336-334-5311
english.uncg.edu

We also understand that there may be issues outside of the classroom that may impact your success this semester. In these instances, there are a variety of campus resources that are in place to support you. Here you will find a list of some of the resources that are available to help you.

For counseling support, stress, and other related issues: The Counseling Center (<https://shs.uncg.edu/cc>) 336-334-5340

If you have been impacted by violence: Campus Violence Response Center (<https://cvrc.uncg.edu>). Crisis response, advocacy, support groups, etc. 336-334-9839

For Tutoring: Academic Achievement Center

UNCG's Academic Achievement Center (AAC) has changed its processes for services (such as finding a tutor) in the spring. The AAC has adopted a new system that allows students to schedule their own tutoring and academic skills appointments and view SI (Supplemental Instruction) schedules in real time.

- To get started with AAC Tutoring, head over to go.uncg.edu/aac\_tutor (Links to an external site.)
- To get started with an Academic Skills specialist, head over to go.uncg.edu/aac\_skills (Links to an external site.)
- To RSVP to a one of our Workshops, go to go.uncg.edu/aac\_owls (Links to an external site.) For help, or for questions, try:
our live chatbox during business hours at go.uncg.edu/aac (Links to an external site.), email us at aac@uncg.edu, or give a call at 336-334-3878.
- Appointments and sessions will start the second week of classes. Scheduling instructions are posted on the sites linked above.